[redacted] I advised that we would review his employment application.

3. [redacted] Met with Mr. Kenneth Sprankie, House Appropriations Committee, Staff Director, and learned that the investigation of counterinsurgency coordination with the Department of Defense has been sanctioned by Mr. Cannon, Chairman. I advised Mr. Sprankie that we would be back in touch with Mr. Conroy, Committee Staff Investigator, later today or in the morning. (See Journal item of 22 October 63.)

4. [redacted] Talked with Bill Darden regarding the exchange of correspondence between the Director and Senator Russell concerning an early meeting of the CIA Subcommittee. I advised Darden that the Director had said he could make himself available most anytime next week. However, I suggested that if there were a preference, Tuesday morning appeared to be the best time for Mr. McCone. Darden said he would take this up with the Chairman and be in touch with us.
